

Migration

Check the presentation for more info about migration rules in Russia

Visa

When to renew?

1.5 month prior to the expiry date

How to renew?

Bring the documents to Office 319

What documents?

- passport and copies of all the pages that contain information (visas and stamps)
- migration card and its copy
- registration and its copy
- photo 3x4
- visa fee payment receipt

Important! You need to renew your visa when you get a new passport

Registration

When you arrive in Russia for the first time and each time you cross the border you need to provide documents for registration within 7 days

How to apply?

Bring the documents to Office 319

What documents?

- current registration (if you prolong your registration)
- migration card (copy)
- passport (copy, all pages only for students who apply for the first time)

When to renew?

- 7 days prior to the expiry date
- when you travel in or outside Russia
- when you get a new visa

Passport

You need to renew your passport 6 months prior to the expiry date

If for any reason you cannot do it, you can ask a migration specialist in 319 to update your visa until the end of your passport

Important! When you get a new passport you'll need to renew your visa. If you change your passport in Russia, you provide the same documents as for the visa prolongation.

If you change your passport outside Russia, you can obtain a single-entry visa in the Russian Embassy in your country

Travel in Russia

When you travel in Russia and stay in hotels/hostels, your Innopolis registration is cancelled.

So when you come back to Innopolis, you need to apply for a new registration

Travel outside Russia

When you come back from your trip, you need to apply for a new registration within 7 days.

Also, you'll need to do a medical examination and fingerprinting within 90 days after your arrival (only if you have not done it before).
